The Waxman Chabad Center of Beachwood, Ohio seeks to hire a Lubavitch couple for an Educational Director Shliach position.

Our shul is a Chabad community shul, established in the early 1970s, located in Beachwood, Ohio, 10 miles from downtown Cleveland. The current shul has a diverse spectrum of roughly 150 regular and affiliated congregants. The greater Beachwood/University Heights Jewish community is large and rapidly growing. We are proud of our safe suburban neighborhoods that still provide an affordable cost of living.

This position would require a commitment to our community from both husband and wife. The couple would operate as Shluchim appointed by Rabbi L. Alevsky, Head Shliach of North Eastern Ohio. Some of the primary tasks associated with this position include, but are not limited to:

- Commitment to connecting with our congregants
- Organizing weekly Shabbos/Holiday children’s programming
- Planning and teaching ongoing shiurim and programming for both men and women
- Facilitating both Chassidic and Jewish Holiday events and programs
- Overseeing Shul communications
- Coordinating guest speakers, dinners, farbrengens, and other special events
- Commitment to attending daily minyanim

The right candidates will have strong leadership skills and an ability to create an inspired growing environment.
